

In recognition of the dedication of our USA employees, we are pleased to announce that Helen Benjamin, Custodial Worker I, in the Custodial Services Department, has been selected as USA Employee of the Quarter for the fourth quarter of 2019.

Helen is a custodian in the Academic Services Center and is described as the first face seen upon entering the building. Her nomination reads in part: “Each day Helen demonstrates behavior fitting of this recognition. Helen is admired by the students and staff for maintaining a clean, orderly and calming environment. She is a team player and takes pride in the University. Helen’s office is not four walls and a door. Her cart is her office, which she keeps neat, clean and well stocked. Helen is an Army veteran and grandmother. She serves the mission of USA by exhibiting a tremendous work ethic and a can-do attitude. She helps make the Academic Services Center a better place, where students are happy to visit and where staff feel welcome and appreciated.”

In recognition of Helen’s commitment to excellence, the presentation of this award took place at the Board of Trustees meeting, on Thursday, December 5, 2019.
